

The Kinlaw Exhibit

*The Kinlaw Library Gallery, Asbury University, Wilmore, Kentucky:
Tuesday, October 23 - Monday, November 12, 2012*

My objectives in the Kinlaw exhibit space were to both convey imagery of a narrative and fuse the work into the space of the gallery extending it to its surroundings.

Part of my desire to exhibit in this space was due to the function of the facilities and to the formal elements of the interior and exterior architecture.
